Akebono Foundation First Central and Eastern Europe Scholarship Application

The Akebono Scholarship was established to provide scholarships to those who live outside of Japan and are interested to study in Japan. The scholarship includes a tailor-made study plan that covers the candidate's topic of interest or study during his or her duration in Japan. We provide scholarships to support those who have the desire and educational drive to come to Japan, but are unable to do so due to financial reasons. We are looking for young, highly-motivated people who can contribute to the international community in the future. Candidates will be selected based on their motivation and what they want to learn in Japan.

This year's program is called the Central and Eastern Europe-Japan Program, and we are looking for a wide range of applicants from Central and Eastern European countries.
